

export Command to Provide Inputs for Variables

- export command exports the variables from a shell, making them global and available in each sub-shell
- Syntax: `export VarName=VarValue`
-
- Note: Variables will get vanish once you close the terminal